Minnie M. Peters

Minnie Meecham Ellison Adams Peters, 84, of 1000 S. 800 W., Provo, died of causes incident to age Thursday, Feb. 6, 1975 in a Provo rest home.

She was born April 24, 1890 in Baker, Nev., a daughter of George D. and Eudora Bigelow Meecham. She married James Ellison on May 2, 1910 in Provo, and he died Jan. 16, 1919.

She married Jack Adams in Provo, and they later were divorced. She then married Roy Peters in Heber City in 1941, and he died March 24, 1952.

Mrs. Peters was a nurse in Heber and Provo for many years. She was instrumental in the opening of a hospital in Heber City. In Provo she worked in the Aird Hospital. She was a member of the LDS Church, serving in the Primary and Relief Society.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Clair (Blanche) Leonard, Provo; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Cheever, Provo, and Mrs. Phoebe Snellson, Whittier, Calif.; four grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 11 a.m. in Berg Drawing Room Chapel, Provo, where friends may call Friday from 6 to 8 p.m. and Saturday prior to services. Burial will be in Provo City Cemetery.

Jan. 26 - 1941

A shower was given by Mrs. Clair Leonard at her home in Salt Lake City, Friday evening, for her mother, Mrs. Roy Peters of Provo, (Mrs. Minnie Adams) who was recently married.

Bridge was the diversion, Mrs. Loyal Adams winning the high score prize, and Mrs. Jerry Flanagan, the second favor. A dinner followed. Beautiful gifts were presented to the honor guest.

In attendance were Mrs. George E. Meecham, Mrs. Julia Brim, Mrs. Elmo Cheever and Mrs. George D. Meecham of Provo, Mrs. Loyal Adams, Mrs. Stanley Leonard, Mrs. Claire Bjorn, Mrs. Jerry Flanagan, Mrs. William Ellison and Mrs. Al Wilkins of Salt Lake City.

Other parties are being planned for Mrs. Peters.

LULA CLEGG

Lula Clegg, daughter of Fred L. and Emma Caroline Clegg, was born in Heber City, October 16, 1892.

Her first schooling was at the old Central School and at the Heber High School, from which she graduated in 1910. That summer she attended school at the University of Utah and took classes in preparation for teaching. She was 17 years of age when she took the teachers' examination and was granted a teaching certificate.

The first teaching job was at Wallsburg; the second year at Provo Bench; and the next six years at the Heber North School. She attended school each summer to improve her teaching and to work towards a degree.

In 1919, she was appointed Clerk of the Board of Education and Health Supervisor. The summer of 1924, she attended school at Columbia University in New York and took special training for the job as Elementary Supervisor. She acted as Clerk of the Board and Elementary Supervisor until 1942, when she was appointed Superintendent of Schools and worked in that capacity for eight years.

While in Heber City, she was Chairman of the Women's Division of the County Fair and had charge of parades and several art exhibits in connection with the Fair. She was prominent in the local Business and Professional Women's Organization and was elected State President in 1934-35, which necessitated travel all over the State in organizing clubs, holding meetings and attending conventions. She was Second Counselor in the Stake MIA.

Schools she attended were: Berkeley, California; UCLA, Los Angeles; Columbia University, New York; the University of Utah; and received a BS degree from the Brigham Young University in 1937 and a Master's degree in 1951.

After leaving Heber City, Lula and her sister Genevieve set up a Gift Shop and Art Gallery in Provo. They sold the business in 1954, and Lula accepted a position with the Extension Division of the Brigham Young University as Chairman of the Home Study Department. She has held the position for five years and will continue with the B. Y. U. until retirement.

Lula owns a home in Provo and has a hobby—a beautiful yard and rose garden. Her nephew lives with her and attends school at the B. Y. U. Lula is energetic, progressive, and has made a name for herself as a member of the Brigham Young University Faculty. 3/2
